

Trailblazer in Transformation

LLOYD TURNER, PhD (1950-2021) was an educator and marketplace Christian who had a passion for spiritual history. He served as an adjunct instructor at Pillar College, where he taught courses in Western Civilization. He also taught American History at the American Christian School. He also led several course/trips to historic and spiritually significant sites such as DC, Philadelphia and Plymouth. He formerly held faculty positions in urban policy analysis at The University of Iowa and at Bryn Mawr College and has been employed as an IT project manager at AT&T and BT Americas. He earned a Ph.D. in Public Policy Analysis from the University of Pennsylvania and is the author of several books, including Highways of Holiness: Preparing the Way for the Lord (2006) a Study Guide and Prayer Guide for HOH. He Co-authored The Street Adopter's Handbook (2011) with Joanne, wrote Proclaiming the Kingdom (2014) and Newark: City of Destiny (2018). He served as a member of the Executive Leadership Team for the TransformOurWorld network and is a co-founder of PrayForNewark a project of The Caring Network, Volunteer Services and pioneer of additional kingdom advancing projects. A lifelong Presbyterian, he embraced the reformed traditions but sought the "greater gifts" as mentioned in I Cor 14. He taught adults at both the Tenth Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia where he met Joanne and at the New Providence Presbyterian church. There he pioneered the Streams class which looks at the major traditions in the Christian faith to learn from each. Lloyd died in January of 2021 after receiving what we hoped was a life saving lung transplant following development of a rare lung disease called hypersensitivity pneumonitis which developed into pulmonary fibrosis. A blog of the journey is available on The Caring Bridge/Lloyd Turner. His legacy lives on in those he touched and the projects he pioneered.

After learning of the ancient covenant between the founders of Newark and Elizabeth, Lloyd sought and found the monument commemorating its location. He sought to restore the monument, a project that is ongoing and moving forward. He loved his family, his Lord and his life unto death.
